The Price Update

Spring finally seems to be showing its face here in France. According to the weathermen, this winter was one of the coldest and rainiest/snowiest in twenty-five years. For us, who have been living in Florida for the last thirteen years, it was quite a shock to our systems. We have been staying very busy with language school and ministry. Language school is still progressing well, slowly but surely, and we have been very busy in evangelistic outreaches. I have been able to preach in the church plant a couple times recently. If you would like to listen to some of the messages which are in French, they are on the church website (<http://ebbc31.free.fr/sermons.html>). Just find in the list of messages

Door-to-Door Ministry

We began going door to door to reach the lost in a town next to Saint-Gaudens called Miramont de Comminges. We started by going through and placing tracts and invitations to an evangelistic conference in each mail box. This took a couple weeks to finish. We are now going back through and knocking each door to speak with each household about their need for Christ. Most have been polite, but uninterested. In spite of this, we have had some good contacts with people. We met a man named Antonio who showed a lot of interest, and even came to church one time. Though we are not seeing much progress with him, please pray that God would work in his life and draw Antonio to Him. We also met a women named Consuelo. She has shown interest, my name. We also will be having another evangelistic conference April 18. We have been distributing invitations already. The picture to the left is of me putting an invitation for the last conference on the windshields of cars. We are also going to be involved in a camp next week. School is out for two weeks because of Easter, so we will be helping with the Easter camp that begins April 13. I will be speaking at one of the services at the camp, and will be a counselor for the teenagers.

but has been confused because of her charismatic background. Pray that God would open her eyes to her need for him. Please pray for us as we continue this ministry.
